(c) Avoidance of harm: At all stages, from the initial contact till disposition, extreme care shall be taken to avoid any harm to the sensitivity of the child.

(d) Principle of Best interest: This principle seeks to ensure physical, emotional, intellectual, social and moral development of the child, so as to make him a useful and good citizen by ameliorating the impediments to healthy development.

(e) Principle of non-stigmatizing semantics, decisions and actions. Non-stigmatizing semantics must be strictly adhered to, and the use of adversarial or accusatory words, such as, arrest, remand, accused, charge sheet, trial, prosecution, warrant, summons, conviction, inmate, delinquent, neglected, custody, etc., is prohibited in the processes pertaining to the child under this Act.

(f) Principles of non-waiver of rights: No waiver of rights of the child, whether by himself or the competent authority or anyone acting or claiming to act on behalf of the child is either permissible or valid. Non-exercise of a fundamental right does not amount to waiver.

(h) Principle of equality.— Equality of access, equality of opportunity, equality under the said Act, is guaranteed to the child; and as such there shall be no discrimination on the basis of age, sex, place of birth, disability, race, ethnicity, status, caste, cultural practices, work, activity or behaviour of the child or that of his parents or guardians, or the civil and political status of the child.

(i) Principle of right to privacy and confidentiality: The child's rights to privacy and confidentiality shall be protected by all means and through all stages of the proceedings.

(j) Principle of Fresh Start: The principle of fresh start promotes new beginning for the child by ensuring erasure of his past records.

(k) Principle of last resort: Institutionalization of a child will be the last resort after reasonable enquiry and that too for the minimum possible duration.

(l) Burden of Proof: Whenever any offence is alleged to have been committed against a child, the burden of proving that such offence has not been committed by the accused <sup>126</sup>[shall lie on the accused if the child was in his custody at the time of his arrest or at the time of committal of offence or at the time of rescue or removal of the child victim, as the case may be.]

(m) Procedure for Children's evidence: Whenever a child <sup>127</sup>[who is a victim of a crime or a witness to a crime ] is required to depose before any authority including this Court, the child shall not be exposed to the presence of the accused or the

<sup>128</sup>[perpetrators of the crime but the Advocate for the accused shall be allowed to be present.]

(n) Cross examination of child witness: Whenever there is a need to cross examine a child witness, care shall be taken to see that the tender age or in case of a victim, the psychological condition of the child is taken into consideration and the Children's Court may adopt such procedures which are fair and suitable to the child.

(o) Deposit of fine prior to trial: Whenever the offence alleged involves a fine, in order to ensure the attendance of the accused during the proceeding and compliance of the Court's directives and others thereafter, the Court may direct the accused <sup>129</sup>[to deposit, in cash, any amount as deemed fit by the Children's Court and his or her passport] at the beginning of the trial itself.

(2) In all dealings with children, the Children's Court shall follow the following guidelines:—

(a) Child victims/witnesses are informed of their role in regard to court proceedings;

(b) Their views are allowed to be heard and respected;

(c) Inconvenience to them is minimized and their privacy is respected;

(d) Delays in the proceedings are reduced;

(e) Aggressive questioning or cross examination of child victims is avoided and the same, if necessary, is done through the judge;

(f) Provisions are made for trials in camera;

(g) The identity of the child victim is protected;

(h) Child victims are prepared for the judicial process and prosecution of alleged abusers is not rushed if a child is not ready to go to court;

(i) The investigator ascertains the need for medical examination of the child victim and when examination is undertaken, ensures that multiple re-examination is avoided;

(j) The medical examination should be conducted in the presence of the parent/guardian and social worker/counsel or as far as possible;

(k) Child's <sup>130</sup>[testimony or statement] should be recorded in the presence of a social worker/counsellor as early as possible after the abusive incident with other witnesses at hand;

(l) Adequate translation/interpretations and translators/interpreters who are sensitive to the children's needs should be provided wherever needed.

(m) In case of a mentally challenged child, the competent service provider should depose on behalf of the child;

130

(n) The special needs of the child victims/witnesses should be catered for. These should include the following:-

(i) Enable children to familiarise themselves with the court surroundings;

(ii) Inform children of the different roles of the key persons at court, such as the judge, the defence lawyer and the prosecutor;

- (iii) Inform the court of the special needs of children in general and of individual children in specific cases;
- (iv) Help children to be comfortable in the proceedings;
- (v) Encourage questionings to be short and clear so as not confuse child witnesses;
- (vi) Permit children below eight years of age to respond to leading questions facilitated by a social worker.

33.<sup>131</sup> [Offences to be cognizable and non-bailable.— Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (Act 2 of 1974), all offences punishable under this Act shall be cognizable and non-bailable; except those under sections 3, 4, 5 and clause (c) of sub-section (5) of section 7.]<sup>55</sup>

34. Exclusion.— No other Court, civil or criminal, shall have jurisdiction to decide or deal with any offence or any question or any dispute or any liability which by or under this Act is to be decided by the Children's Court, except by appeal to the High Court or Supreme Court.

35. Act to override<sup>132</sup>[State Laws].— Save as otherwise provided in this Act, the provisions of this Act shall have effect notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in any other [State law]<sup>55</sup> for the time being in force or any custom or usage or any instrument having effect by virtue of any such law.

36. Duty of Government to ensure effective implementation of the Act.— The State Government shall take such measures as may be necessary for the effective implementation of this Act.

37. Powers to make rules.— The State Government may by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

38. Power to remove difficulties.— (1) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the Government may by Order published in the Official Gazette, make such provisions not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act as may appear to be necessary or expedient for removal of the difficulty:

Provided that no order shall be made under this section after the expiry of <sup>133</sup>[five years] from the commencement of this Act.

(2) Every order made under this section shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before the State Legislature.

(b) he has been convicted of an offence involving moral turpitude; and such conviction has not been reversed or he has not been granted full pardon in respect of such offence;

(c) he fails to attend the proceedings of the Court for consecutive three months without any valid reason or he fails to attend atleast three-fourth of the sitting in a year.

7. Procedure of the Court.— (1) The Court shall be presided over by the President.

(2) The quorum for the proceedings of the Court shall be the President and one member of the Jury.

(3) The Court shall meet at such times and observe such rules of conduct as the President, in consultation with the High Court, lays down.

(4) A child victim or a child in conflict with law may be produced before an individual member of the Jury or the President, when the Court is not sitting.

(5) the Court may act notwithstanding the absence of any member of the Jury, and no order made by the Court shall be invalid by reason only of the absence of any member during any stage of proceedings:

Provided that there shall be atleast two members including the President present at the time of final disposal of the case.

(6) In the event of any difference of opinion among the members of the Jury in the interim or final disposition, the opinion of the majority shall prevail, but where there is no such majority, the opinion of the President shall prevail.

8. Procedure to be followed by a Magistrate not empowered under the Act.— (1) When any Magistrate not empowered to exercise the powers of the Court under the Act is of the opinion that a person brought before him under any of the provisions of the Act (other than for the purpose of giving evidence), is a child, he shall without any delay record such opinion and forward the child and the record of the proceedings to any member of the Jury or to the President of the Court or to the Competent Authority under the Act.

(2) The Competent Authority to which the record of the proceedings is forwarded under sub-rule (1) shall hold the inquiry as if the child has been brought before him originally and if found fit refer the child to the Court for necessary action.

9. Proceedings to be conducted in child friendly atmosphere.— (1) The President shall follow a procedure which is child friendly and in the best interest of the child while examining any child who is a victim of any crime or accused of or a witness to any crime, and shall give such instructions to the members of the Jury and members of legal profession appearing before him, as he deems fit.

(2) The President may, where necessary, issue general instructions in this behalf and duly notify them in the Official Gazette.

By order and in the name of the Governor of Goa.
